

*“Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord, all the earth.”*

Psalm 96

Do you enjoy singing and learning new music? The Summer Institute of Church Music is looking for singers to join in its chorister program. Over the course of a week, you will have the opportunity to learn many pieces of music, ranging from Palestrina and Purcell to newer composers such as Fetteke, Enns, Chilcott and Sirett.

Rehearsals begin Sunday afternoon and evening, then again Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, leading up to our concert on Thursday evening at St. George's Anglican Church in Oshawa.

Directed by this year's choral instructor, Lee Willingham, the SICM choir promises to be another enjoyable and educational experience.

Lee Willingham

Director and founder of the Laurier Centre for Music in the Community, is an Associate Professor at Wilfrid Laurier University.

Previously, he was on the faculty of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto as well as having served as the music coordinator for the Scarborough Board of Education.

He is the founding director of the Bell'Arte Singers, conducting the choir for twenty years. Dr. Willingham has also served as the principal of the OISE/UT Summer Music program, providing certification for teachers in music.

Dr. Willingham's research and scholarly work focuses on the impact of music on the individual, and the benefits of developing lifelong learning in the arts, particularly music. He has contributed chapters, papers and articles to many publications and served as editor of Canadian Music Education/Musicien éducateur au Canada for ten years.

Dr. Willingham balances research and writing with performance as a choral conductor. He has guest conducted many choirs, most recently the Budapest Central Choir in Hungary, the Canadian Independent Music School Festival at Roy Thomson Hall in Toronto, and the Saskatchewan Honour Choir. At Laurier he conducts the Laurier Singers Chamber Choir.

Dr. Willingham holds degrees from the University of Toronto and serves on a number of boards and advisory councils.
